EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1 and 2, NRS 502.175

A REGULATION relating to licensing and the purchase of tags.....

Uncodified NAC 502.4215 is hereby amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this regulation, the term suspicious activity is defined as: seeking to create an unfair advantage in obtaining a big game tag.

NAC 502.4215

1. The Department ~~shall~~ may provide all eligible hunters with an opportunity to apply electronically for any tags that are:

(a) Remaining after tags have been issued for a season by using the computerized system of drawing and alternate list; or

(b) Returned 14 calendar days or less before the opening day for that season.

→ The Department shall act upon applications for such tags in the order received.

2. If an application for a tag described in subsection 1 is successfully drawn, the Department shall collect from the applicant:

(a) The appropriate fee for the tag as provided in NRS 502.250; and

(b) The fee for a hunting license or combination hunting and fishing license, as provided in NRS 502.240, if the applicant:

(1) Has not obtained a hunting license and indicates on the application that he or she wishes to purchase the hunting license or combination hunting and fishing license only if his or her application is successfully drawn; or

(2) The hunting license or combination hunting and fishing license submitted with the application for the tag or permit will expire before the opening day of the season for the permit or tag.

3. If a tag is issued to a person pursuant to this section, the person will be treated as if he or she was successful in drawing a tag for a season for that species in respect to any applicable bonus points and waiting periods.

4. Persons utilizing the electronic system who actively abuse the electronic system or attempt to create an unfair advantage in obtaining a tag may be suspended for suspicious activity by the Department from participation in applying for remaining tags. Activities that are cause for suspension include but are not limited to:

(a) The use of technological programs designed to carry out tasks that would otherwise be performed by a human supervision,

(b) Technological advancements designed to increase the ability of the average human,

(c) Multiple logins into a single customer's account.

(d) Multiple browser sessions open at a single time.

5. Suspensions applied for suspicious activity, active abuse or attempting to create an unfair advantage may last through the duration of the big game hunting season. Severe conduct, such as continued and substantial efforts to gain an unfair advantage, may result in permanent restriction from applying for remaining tags.
