The following information is provided regarding the proposed regulations in R012-23P pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.0603:

(1) A statement of the need for and purpose of the proposed regulation.

NRS 293.124 provides the Secretary of State, as the Chief Officer of Elections for the State of Nevada, the authority to adopt such regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of title 24 of NRS. The purpose of the proposed amendment is to codify standards and procedures for various election functions. Specifically updating and altering regulations that will govern the conduct of the presidential preference primary based on lessons learned during the 2022 election cycle.

(2) If the proposed regulation is a temporary regulation, either the terms or substance of the proposed regulation or a description of the subjects and issues involved.

Not applicable as these proposed regulations would be permanent regulations.

(3) If the proposed regulation is a permanent regulation, a statement explaining how to obtain the approved or revised text of the proposed regulation prepared by the Legislative Counsel pursuant to NRS 233B.063.

As the proposed regulations are permanent regulations, the text of the proposed regulation is provided below. Additionally, they will be posted on the Secretary of State's website here.

(4) A statement of the estimated economic effect of the regulation on the business which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately and in each case must include: (I) Both adverse and beneficial effects; and (II) Both immediate and long-term effects.

These regulations do not create an economic effect on either Nevada businesses or the public. These regulations relate to the conduct of Nevada elections and, as such, do not create an adverse or beneficial economic impact in either the immediate or long-term.

(5) A statement identifying the methods used by the agency in determining the impact on a small business prepared pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 233B.0608.

The agency determined that these proposed regulations would not impact small businesses through discussions with the county clerks and Secretary of State's accounting division, and through an analysis of historic costs related to the administration of Nevada's elections at the state and county level.

(6) The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.

Enforcement of these proposed regulations poses no significant cost to the Secretary of State's office.

(7) A description of any regulations of other state or local governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the notice must include the name of the regulating federal agency.

There are no regulations of other federal, state or local governmental agencies which the proposed regulations overlap or duplicate.

(8) If the regulation is required pursuant to federal law, a citation and description of the federal law.

The proposed regulations are not required pursuant to federal law.

(9) If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

The proposed regulations do not include provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity.

(10) The time when, the place where and the manner in which interested persons may present their views regarding the proposed regulation.

This information is provided in the text located at the top of this notice. Interested persons may present their view regarding these proposed regulations either in person, in writing, or during the aforementioned meeting itself.

Upon adoption of any regulation, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief, a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the proposed regulation on small businesses and that the information contained in the statement is accurate.

Respectfully,

Mark Wlaschin, Deputy Secretary for Elections
