Interested persons may review a copy of the summary of the public response by contacting Agata Gawronski, Executive Director for the Board, at agawronski@adgc.nv.gov or 775-689-0563.

(f) If the regulation was adopted without changing any part of the proposed regulation, a summary of the reasons for adopting the regulation without change.

The regulation was adopted without any changes. The industry is supportive of the changes.

(g) The estimated economic effect of the regulation on the business which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately, and in each case must include:

(1) Both adverse and beneficial effects:

Adverse effects: There are no adverse effects of this regulation on the businesses it regulates nor on the public.

Beneficial effects: This will allow the Board to streamline the process for applications and with the increase in fees it will help the Board continue its operations.

(2) Both immediate and long-term effects:

Immediate effects: Streamlined application process and increased fees for the continuation of the operations of the Board.

Long-term effects: Streamlined application process and continuation of Board operations.

(h) The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.

There is no cost to the Board for enforcement of this regulation.

(i) A description of any regulations of other state or government agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the name of the regulating federal agency.

There are no other state or government agencies that overlap this regulation.

(j) If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation which regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

This regulation does not contain any provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity.

(k) If the regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect and the manner in which the money will be used.

There is an increase to a fee. The Board anticipates that it will raise an additional $4,800 with the increase to the costs of the continuing education, an additional $17,600 with the cost of the increase to the renewal fees. These increases will help the Board offset increased cost associated with salaries for staff and fees charged the Board for Board operations.
