

Digest for Adopted Regulation R_105-11

Under existing law, the State Public Works Board is required to adopt regulations setting forth certain standards and guidelines relating to the efficient use of water and energy in the design and construction of buildings or other projects of this State. (NRS 341.091)

This regulation revises various provisions relating to the incorporation of green building design measures in projects for the construction or remodeling of certain state buildings.