

Digest for Adopted Regulation R_123-11

Existing regulations provide that a person may appeal the decision of a solid waste management authority as it relates to the disposal of solid waste to the State Environmental Commission. (NAC 444.748) This regulation limits such appeals under NAC 444.748 to those arising from decisions of the Division of Environmental Protection of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.