AN ACT relating to estates; making certain agreements between an heir finder and an apparent heir relating to the recovery of property in an estate void and unenforceable under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 This bill provides that an agreement between an heir finder and an apparent heir
2 relating to the recovery of property in an estate for which the public administrator
3 petitioned for letters of administration is void and unenforceable if the agreement is 4 entered into during the period beginning with the death of the person whose estate
5 is in probate until 6 months thereafter.
