AN ACT relating to domestic relations; enacting the Uniform Deployed Parents Custody and Visitation Act; repealing provisions governing custody and visitation orders concerning children of members of the military; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law contains provisions governing the custody and visitation of a child 2 when a parent or legal guardian of the child receives military deployment orders.
3 (NRS 125C.100-125C.185) This bill repeals those provisions and enacts the 4 Uniform Deployed Parents Custody and Visitation Act adopted by the Uniform
5 Law Commission.
6 Section 23 of this bill sets forth the circumstances under which a court of this 7 State has jurisdiction to issue orders concerning the custodial responsibility of a 8 child when a parent or other custodian of the child has received military 9 deployment orders. Section 24 of this bill provides for notice of a pending 10 deployment to the other parent and the provision of a plan for fulfilling the 11 custodial responsibility of each parent during the deployment. Section 25 of this 12 bill requires a person to whom custodial responsibility for a child has been assigned 13 or granted during a deployment to notify the deploying parent of a change of his or 14 her mailing address. Section 26 of this bill governs the manner in which a court 15 considers the past or possible future deployment of a parent in a proceeding for 16 custodial responsibility of the child.
17 Sections 27-31 of this bill provide procedures for out-of-court resolution of 18 issues relating to the custodial responsibility of a child which arise upon the 19 deployment of a service member. Section 27 provides for a temporary agreement 20 granting custodial responsibility during deployment. Section 29 authorizes the 21 modification of a temporary agreement regarding custodial responsibility. Section 22 30 provides for a grant of custodial responsibility to a nonparent of the child under 23 certain circumstances.

* A B 3 5 8 *

24 Sections 32-41 of this bill provide for a judicial resolution of issues that arise 25 when the parents of a child do not reach an agreement concerning the custody or 26 visitation of a child during the deployment of one parent. Section 33 requires an 27 expedited hearing if a motion to grant custodial responsibility is filed before a 28 deploying parent deploys. Section 34 authorizes a party or witness who is not 29 reasonably available to appear personally in court to provide testimony and present 30 evidence by electronic means, unless the court finds good cause to require a 31 personal appearance. Section 35 establishes certain rules that apply in a proceeding 32 to grant custodial responsibility during the deployment of a parent, and section 36 33 authorizes the court to grant caretaking authority of a child to a nonparent under 34 certain circumstances. Section 38 provides that a grant by a court of custodial 35 responsibility or caretaking authority is temporary.

36 Sections 42-45 of this bill set forth the procedures governing the termination of 37 a temporary custody arrangement following the return from deployment of a 38 deployed parent. Section 42 provides the procedure for terminating a temporary 39 custody arrangement established by an agreement of the parties. Section 43
40 establishes a consent procedure for terminating a temporary custody arrangement 41 established by court order. Under section 45, if no agreement to terminate a 42 temporary custody arrangement established by court order is reached between the 43 parents, the order terminates 60 days after the date on which the deploying parent 44 gives notice of having returned from deployment to the other parent or to any 45 nonparent granted custodial responsibility.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 125.510 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 125.510 1. In determining the custody of a minor child in an 3 action brought pursuant to this chapter, the court may, except as 4 otherwise provided in this section ~~§, NRS 125C.100 to 125C.185,~~
5 ~~inclusive,§~~, sections 2 to 48, inclusive, of this act and chapter 130
6 of NRS:

7 (a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at 8 any time thereafter during the minority of any of the children of the 9 marriage, make such an order for the custody, care, education, 10 maintenance and support of the minor children as appears in their 11 best interest; and

12 (b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if the divorce 13 was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one 14 of the parties.

15 ➤ The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of 16 the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make 17 such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal 18 guardian of the minor.

19 2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated 20 by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the 21 court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child 22 requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its

1 decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if 2 either parent opposes it.

3 3. Any order for custody of a minor child or children of a 4 marriage entered by a court of another state may, subject to the 5 provisions of ~~NRS 125C.100 to 125C.185, inclusive,~~ sections 2 to 6 48, inclusive, of this act and to the jurisdictional requirements in 7 chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint 8 custody.

9 4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without 10 counsel.

11 5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a 12 child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure 13 that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the 14 best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all 15 specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As 16 used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement 17 of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term 18 "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different 19 interpretations by the parties.

20 6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in 21 accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and ~~NRS~~ 22 ~~125C.100 to 125C.185, inclusive,~~ sections 2 to 48, inclusive, of 23 this act, and must contain the following language:
24

25 PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE 26 ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD
27 IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A
28 CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS
29 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody 30 to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who 31 willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, 32 guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of 33 visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or 34 removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the 35 consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to 36 custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D
37 felony as provided in NRS 193.130.
38

39 7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 40 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of 41 the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th
42 Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, 43 apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign 44 country.

1 8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has 2 significant commitments in a foreign country:

3 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the 4 order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country 5 of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the 6 terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

7 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 8 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an 9 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child 10 outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an 11 amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the 12 cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her 13 habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or 14 concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a 15 parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not 16 create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of 17 wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

18 9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been 19 executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care, 20 education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by 21 any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

22 (a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was 23 directed; or

24 (b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if the child is no
25 longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when the child reaches 19 26 years of age.

27 10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant 28 commitments in a foreign country" if the parent:

29 (a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

30 (b) Possesses a passport in his or her name from a foreign 31 country;

32 (c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the 33 other parent of the child; or

34 (d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

9 4. This section does not prohibit the exercise of temporary 10 emergency jurisdiction by a court under chapter 125A of NRS.

11 Sec. 24. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, 12 and subject to subsection 3, a deploying parent shall notify in a 13 record the other parent of a pending deployment not later than 7

17 such notification must be made as soon as reasonably possible 18 thereafter.

19 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, and subject 20 to subsection 3, each parent shall in a record provide the other 21 parent with a plan for fulfilling that parent's share of custodial 22 responsibility during deployment as soon as reasonably possible 23 after receiving notice of deployment under subsection 1.

24 3. If an existing court order prohibits disclosure of the 25 address or contact information of the other parent, a notification 26 of deployment under subsection 1, or notification of a plan for 27 custodial responsibility during deployment under subsection 2, 28 may be made only to the issuing court. If the address of the other 29 parent is available to the issuing court, the court shall forward the 37 efforts to comply with this section.

38 Sec. 25. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a 39 person to whom custodial responsibility has been assigned or 40 granted during deployment pursuant to sections 27 to 41, 41 inclusive, of this act shall notify the deploying parent and any

3 2. If an existing court order prohibits disclosure of the 4 address or contact information of a person to whom custodial 5 responsibility has been assigned or granted, a notification of 6 change of mailing address or residence under subsection 1 may be 7 made only to the court that issued the order. The court shall keep

14 significant impact on the best interest of the child of the parent's 15 past or possible future deployment.

16 Sec. 27. 1. The parents of a child may enter into a 17 temporary agreement granting custodial responsibility during 18 deployment.

22 custodial responsibility is granted.

23 3. An agreement under subsection 1 may:

24 (a) Identify to the extent feasible the destination, duration and 25 conditions of the deployment that is the basis for the agreement;

26 (b) Specify the allocation of caretaking authority among the 27 deploying parent, the other parent and any nonparent, if 28 applicable;

29 (c) Specify any decision-making authority that accompanies a 30 grant of caretaking authority;

31 (d) Specify any grant of limited contact to a nonparent;

32 (e) If the agreement shares custodial responsibility between the 33 other parent and a nonparent, or between two nonparents, provide 34 a process to resolve any dispute that may arise;

35 (f) Specify the frequency, duration and means, including 36 electronic means, by which the deploying parent will have contact 37 with the child, any role to be played by the other parent in 38 facilitating the contact and allocation of any costs of 39 communications;

40 (g) Specify the contact between the deploying parent and child
41 during the time the deploying parent is on leave or is otherwise 42 available;

43 (h) Acknowledge that any party's existing child support
44 obligation cannot be modified by the agreement and that changing

1 the terms of the obligation during deployment requires
2 modification in the appropriate court;

3 (i) Provide that the agreement terminates following the 4 deploying parent's return from deployment according to the 5 procedures under sections 42 to 45, inclusive, of this act; and

6 (j) If the agreement must be filed pursuant to section 31 of this 7 act, specify which parent shall file the agreement.

8 Sec. 28. 1. An agreement under sections 27 to 31, inclusive, 9 of this act is temporary and terminates pursuant to sections 42 to 10 45, inclusive, of this act following the return from deployment of 11 the deployed parent, unless the agreement has been terminated
12 before that time by court order or modification of the agreement 13 under section 29 of this act. The agreement derives from the 14 parents' custodial responsibility and does not create an 15 independent, continuing right to caretaking authority, decision- 16 making authority or limited contact in a person to whom custodial 17 responsibility is given.

18 2. A nonparent given caretaking authority, decision-making 19 authority or limited contact by an agreement under sections 27 to 20 31, inclusive, of this act has standing to enforce the agreement 21 until it has been terminated pursuant to an agreement of the 22 parents under section 29 of this act, under sections 42 to 45, 23 inclusive, of this act or by court order.

24 Sec. 29. 1. The parents may modify an agreement 25 regarding custodial responsibility made pursuant to sections 27 to 26 31, inclusive, of this act by mutual consent.

27 2. If an agreement is modified under subsection 1 before 28 deployment of a deploying parent, the modification must be in 29 writing and signed by both parents and any nonparent who will 30 exercise custodial responsibility under the modified agreement.

31 3. If an agreement is modified under subsection 1 during 32 deployment of a deploying parent, the modification must be agreed 33 to in a record by both parents and any nonparent who will exercise 34 custodial responsibility under the modified agreement.

35 Sec. 30. If no other parent possesses custodial responsibility
36 under the laws of this State other than sections 3 to 48, inclusive, 37 of this act, or if an existing court order prohibits contact between 38 the child and the other parent, a deploying parent, by power of 39 attorney, may delegate all or part of custodial responsibility to an 40 adult nonparent for the period of deployment. The power of 41 attorney is revocable by the deploying parent through a revocation 42 of the power of attorney signed by the deploying parent.

43 Sec. 31. An agreement or power of attorney made under 44 sections 27 to 30, inclusive, of this act must be filed within a 45 reasonable period of time with any court that has entered an

1 existing order on custodial responsibility or child support 2 concerning the child. The case number and heading of the 3 existing case concerning custodial responsibility or child support 4 must be provided to the court with the agreement or power of 5 attorney.

6 Sec. 32. 1. After a deploying parent receives notice of 7 deployment and during the deployment, a court may issue a 8 temporary order granting custodial responsibility unless 9 prohibited by the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C.
10 Appx. §§ 521-522. A court may not issue a permanent order 11 granting custodial responsibility without the consent of the 12 deploying parent.

13 2. At any time after a deploying parent receives notice of 14 deployment, either parent may file a motion regarding custodial 15 responsibility of a child during deployment. The motion must be 16 filed in an existing proceeding for custodial responsibility of the 17 child with jurisdiction under section 23 of this act or, if there is no 18 existing proceeding in a court with jurisdiction under section 23 of 19 this act, in a new action for granting custodial responsibility 20 during deployment.

21 Sec. 33. If a motion to grant custodial responsibility is filed 22 before a deploying parent deploys, the court shall conduct an 23 expedited hearing.

24 Sec. 34. In a proceeding brought under sections 32 to 41, 25 inclusive, of this act, a party or witness who is not reasonably 26 available to appear personally may appear and provide testimony 27 and present evidence by electronic means unless the court finds 28 good cause to require a personal appearance.

29 Sec. 35. In a proceeding for a grant of custodial 30 responsibility pursuant to sections 32 to 41, inclusive, of this act, 31 the following rules apply:

32 1. A prior judicial order designating custodial responsibility 33 of a child in the event of deployment is binding on the court unless 34 the circumstances meet the requirements of the laws of this State 35 other than sections 3 to 48, inclusive, of this act for modifying a 36 judicial order regarding custodial responsibility.

37 2. The court shall enforce a prior written agreement between 38 the parents for designating custodial responsibility of a child in 39 the event of deployment, including a prior written agreement 40 executed under sections 27 to 31, inclusive, of this act, unless the 41 court finds the agreement contrary to the best interest of the child.

42 Sec. 36. 1. On the motion of a deploying parent and in 43 accordance with the laws of this State other than sections 3 to 48, 44 inclusive, of this act, a court may grant caretaking authority of a 45 child to a nonparent who is an adult family member of the child or

1 an adult with whom the child has a close and substantial
2 relationship if it is in the best interest of the child.

3 2. Unless the grant of caretaking authority to a nonparent 4 under subsection 1 is agreed to by the other parent, the grant is 5 limited to an amount of time not greater than:

6 (a) The time granted to the deploying parent in an existing 7 permanent custody order, except that the court may add unusual 8 travel time necessary to transport the child; or

9 (b) In the absence of an existing permanent custody order, the 10 amount of time that the deploying parent habitually cared for the 11 child before being notified of deployment, except that the court 12 may add unusual travel time necessary to transport the child.

13 3. A court may grant part of the deploying parent's decision-
14 making authority for a child to a nonparent who is an adult family 15 member of the child or an adult with whom the child has a close 16 and substantial relationship if the deploying parent is unable to 17 exercise that authority. When a court grants the authority to a 18 nonparent, the court shall specify the decision-making powers that 19 will and will not be granted, including applicable health, 20 educational and religious decisions.

21 Sec. 37. On motion of a deploying parent and in accordance
