AN ACT relating to peace officers; requiring certain state agencies to reimburse certain persons who possess some or all of the powers of peace officers for the cost to repair or replace their required uniforms and other clothing, accessories and safety equipment under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes, under certain circumstances, a state agency that 2 employs certain persons who possess some or all of the powers of peace officers to 3 reimburse the persons for the cost to repair or replace their required uniforms or 4 other clothing, accessories or safety equipment if they are damaged or destroyed by 5 means other than ordinary wear and tear while the persons perform duties for the 6 State as peace officers. (NRS 289.800) This bill requires a state agency which 7 employs a person who possesses some or all of the powers of a peace officer and 8 which requires the person to purchase and wear a uniform in performing the 9 person’s duties for the State as a peace officer to reimburse the person for the cost 10 to repair or replace the required uniform and any other required clothing, 11 accessories and safety equipment that is damaged or destroyed by ordinary wear 12 and tear while the person performs duties for the State as a peace officer.
