Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law establishes the Nevada College Savings Program as a qualified

3 tax-exempt college savings accounts to assist students with qualified expenses for 4 higher education. (NRS 353B.300-353B.370)

5 Section 1 of this bill authorizes the State or any political subdivision or agency 6 of the State, a local government or a nonprofit organization to establish under the 7 Program a tax-exempt savings trust account which may remain open in perpetuity
8 and from which such an entity may, on a continual and rolling basis, award
9 scholarships to one or more designated beneficiaries. Section 1 further authorizes 10 such account owners to determine the criteria for awarding a scholarship from the 11 account and to defer naming any designated beneficiary of the account until such 12 time as the account owner determines that a person is eligible for a scholarship.
13 Section 1 prohibits any person other than the State or any political subdivision or 14 agency of the State, a local government or a nonprofit organization who is an 15 account owner from establishing more than one account for a designated 16 beneficiary or naming more than one designated beneficiary for an account, and 17 requires such an account owner to name the designated beneficiary of the account
