EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to local government; authorizing counties and cities, with limited exceptions, to exercise the powers necessary for the effective operation of county and city government; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 In 1868, Judge John F. Dillon of the Iowa Supreme Court established a 2 common-law rule of statutory interpretation known as Dillon’s Rule, which limits
3 the powers of local governments. (Merriam v. Moody’s Ex’rs, 25 Iowa 163 (Iowa 4 1868)) Under Dillon’s Rule, a local government is authorized to exercise only those 5 powers which are: (1) expressly granted; (2) necessarily or fairly implied in or 6 incident to the powers expressly granted; or (3) essential to the accomplishment of 7 the declared purposes of the local government.

8 Under existing law, county commissioners are authorized to exercise only those 9 powers which are expressly granted and powers that are necessarily implied to 10 carry out express powers. (Sadler v. Board of County Comm’rs, 15 Nev. 39, 42 11 (1880)) Sections 2-7 of this bill authorize a board of county commissioners, with 12 limited exceptions, to exercise all powers needed for the effective operation of 13 county government, even if the power to perform these acts is neither express nor 14 implied, so long as the power is not expressly prohibited or limited by 15 constitutional or statutory provisions or granted to another entity.

16 Under existing law, a city government is authorized to exercise only those 17 powers expressly granted by the charter or laws creating the city, and the necessary
18 means of employing those powers. (Tucker v. Mayor of Virginia City, 4 Nev. 20, 26 19 (1868)) Sections 9-14 and 16-21 of this bill authorize city governments, whether 20 created by general law or charter, to exercise all powers needed for the effective

21 operation of city government, with limited exceptions, even if the power to perform 22 these acts is neither express nor implied, so long as the power is not expressly 23 prohibited or limited by constitutional or statutory provisions or granted to another 24 entity.
