AN ACT relating to technological crimes; authorizing the Attorney General to take certain actions to prevent technological crimes; revising the provisions governing actions which constitute theft to include the theft of audio or visual services; revising the provisions governing the appointment of an Executive Director of Technological Crime within the Office of the Attorney General; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Section 1 of this bill authorizes the Attorney General to investigate and 2 prosecute any alleged technological crime, pursue the forfeiture of property relating 3 to a technological crime and bring an action to enjoin or obtain any equitable relief 4 to prevent the occurrence or continuation of any technological crime.
5 Existing law describes certain actions which constitute theft. (NRS 205.0832)
6 Section 2 of this bill revises those provisions to include the theft of audio or visual 7 services.
8 Existing law creates the Technological Crime Advisory Board. (NRS 9 205A.040) Existing law also requires the appointment of an Executive Director of 10 Technological Crime within the Office of the Attorney General upon approval by 11 two-thirds of the members of the Board. (NRS 205A.070) Section 3 of this bill 12 requires the appointment to be made upon approval by a majority of the members 13 of the board.

18 deprive that person of the property.

19 (b) Converts, makes an unauthorized transfer of an interest in, or 20 without authorization controls any property of another person, or 21 uses the services or property of another person entrusted to him 22 or her or placed in his or her possession for a limited, authorized 23 period of determined or prescribed duration or for a limited use.

24 (c) Obtains real, personal or intangible property or the services 25 of another person by a material misrepresentation with intent to 26 deprive that person of the property or services. As used in this 27 paragraph, "material misrepresentation" means the use of any 28 pretense, or the making of any promise, representation or statement 29 of present, past or future fact which is fraudulent and which, when 30 used or made, is instrumental in causing the wrongful control or 31 transfer of property or services. The pretense may be verbal or it 32 may be a physical act.

33 (d) Comes into control of lost, mislaid or misdelivered property
34 of another person under circumstances providing means of inquiry
35 as to the true owner and appropriates that property to his or her own 36 use or that of another person without reasonable efforts to notify the 37 true owner.

38 (e) Controls property of another person knowing or having 39 reason to know that the property was stolen.

40 (f) Obtains services , including, without limitation, audio or 41 visual services, or parts, products or other items related to such 42 services which the person knows or, in the case of audio or visual

1 services, should have known are available only for compensation 2 without paying or agreeing to pay compensation or diverts the 3 services of another person to his or her own benefit or that of 4 another person without lawful authority to do so.

5 (g) Takes, destroys, conceals or disposes of property in which 6 another person has a security interest, with intent to defraud that 7 person.

8 (h) Commits any act that is declared to be theft by a specific 9 statute.

10 (i) Draws or passes a check, and in exchange obtains property or 11 services, if the person knows that the check will not be paid when 12 presented.

13 (j) Obtains gasoline or other fuel or automotive products which 14 are available only for compensation without paying or agreeing to 15 pay compensation.

16 2. A person who commits an act that is prohibited by 17 subsection 1 which involves the repair of a vehicle has not 18 committed theft unless, before the repair was made, the person 19 received a written estimate of the cost of the repair.

20 Sec. 3. NRS 205A.070 is hereby amended to read as follows:

21 205A.070 1. Upon approval by ~~two-thirds~~ a majority of 22 members of the Board, the Board shall appoint an Executive 23 Director of Technological Crime within the Office of the Attorney 24 General.

25 2. The Executive Director is in the unclassified service of the 26 State and serves at the pleasure of the Board.

27 3. The Board shall establish the qualifications, powers and 28 duties of the Executive Director.

29 Sec. 4. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2013.
