- (b) The name and location of the project for which the plans are submitted;
- (c) The date the plans were issued for printing; and
- (d) A statement that indicates whether the plans are preliminary or final.

2. If the plans submitted to a public authority are copies of the original plans:

(a) Each sheet must bear the date ~~and~~ and the original stamp and signature of the registrant who provided the responsible control under which the work indicated on the sheet was performed; and

(b) For each professional discipline included in the plans, the cover sheet and the first sheet for that professional discipline must be dated and include an original stamp and signature of the registrant who provided the responsible control under which the work indicated on the sheet was performed.

3. Each set of specifications submitted to a public authority must include a table of contents or cover sheet that:

- (a) Indicates the professional discipline that is the source of each specification; and
- (b) Contains the stamp of, and is signed and dated by, each registrant who provided the responsible control under which the work in that professional discipline was performed.

4. Each report, study, test result, certification or calculation that is submitted to a public authority must be stamped, signed and dated by the registrant who provided the responsible control under which that report, study, test result, certification or calculation was submitted.

Sec. 6. NAC 623.780 is hereby amended to read as follows:

623.780 Each architect, residential designer and interior designer who holds a certificate of registration shall:

1. Take such reasonable steps as are necessary to ensure that his drawings and specifications are not used for projects not contemplated at the time those drawings and specifications are completed.
2. Include in all contracts between himself and a client the following language:

Drawings and specifications remain the property of the design professional. Copies of the drawings and specifications retained by the client may be utilized only for his use and for occupying the project for which they were prepared, and not for the construction of any other project.

3. Retain possession of all original ~~line drawings prepared for a project.~~

~~4. Not permit the dissemination of original drawings and specifications in any form, including, but not limited to, computer discs, which, when duplicated, could be indistinguishable from the original drawings and specifications.]~~ plans, drawings and specifications issued for official use. The plans, drawings and specifications must be printed on paper or stored in an electronic form.

Sec. 7. NAC 623.915 is hereby amended to read as follows:

623.915 1. Upon receipt of a complaint, the Executive Director or a person otherwise authorized by the Board shall appoint a member of the Board's staff to conduct an initial investigation of the complaint. The investigator shall submit a written report to the Executive Director or a person otherwise authorized by the Board which describes the results of his investigation.

2. The Executive Director or a person otherwise authorized by the Board shall review the written report and recommend that the Board:

- (a) Dismiss the complaint;
- (b) Negotiate a resolution of the complaint;
- (c) Authorize the creation of an advisory committee to review the complaint if the respondent agrees to participate in an informal conference with an advisory committee; or
- (d) ~~[Schedule an informal hearing; or~~
- ~~—(e)]~~ Schedule a formal hearing.
