 from which the period begins is not counted and the last day of the period or portion thereof is

- 2. For a period of time or any portion thereof which begins on or after March 6, 1999, the period or portion thereof must be calculated such that the day of the act or event from which the period begins is counted and the last day is not counted.
 - Sec. 3. NAC 284.313 is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 284.313 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, competition in a recruitment is limited to applicants who meet the minimum qualifications and other criteria or conditions for the class or position as specified in the publicized job announcement. The publicized job announcement may provide for the consideration of applicants who do not currently meet those minimum qualifications but who will do so by the time their names are placed on an eligible list.
- 2. It is the responsibility of an applicant to apply for any recruitment for which he is interested. Future vacancies may be filled from the results of appropriate prior recruitments.
- 3. Each applicant must submit an application as specified in the publicized job announcement. The application must be received not later than 5 p.m. on the [final] closing date specified in the publicized job announcement.
- 4. The incomplete or improper completion of an application that affects the ability of the Department of Personnel to determine the qualifications of the applicant, including the failure to designate the locations where the applicant will work and other criteria or conditions, is cause for the rejection of the applicant.

- 5. If a recruitment produces a sufficient number of applicants, the Department of Personnel may, as an additional phase of the process of examination, approve the obtaining of supplemental information from each applicant to assess his qualifications if the publicized job announcement includes notice that such supplemental information may be required. Only those applicants who are considered the most qualified, based on this assessment, may continue in the competition.
- 6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, competition in a promotional recruitment is limited to current state employees who:

- (b) Are working in the division, department or state service which is specified in the publicized job announcement.
- 7. An employee who competes in a promotional recruitment may be at a higher grade, the same grade or a lower grade than the grade of the class for which the recruitment is being conducted. Depending on the grade of the employee, an appointment resulting from a promotional recruitment may be a voluntary demotion, a lateral transfer or a promotion.
- 8. A former incumbent of a seasonal position who was separated from state service with the status of a permanent employee may apply for a promotional recruitment up to 1 year after the day of separation even though he is not currently employed. The prior appointment must have been in the division, department or state service which is specified in the publicized job announcement.

- 9. Applications and accompanying documents are the property of the Department of Personnel.

- 2. An appointing authority need not consider an eligible person more than three times from a recruitment. Consideration of an applicant for other than full-time permanent positions must not be counted for the purposes of this subsection.
- 3. An appointing authority need not consider an eligible person who cannot perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodations.
- 4. An appointing authority may refuse to consider an eligible person who has been subject to a suspension, demotion or termination as a result of an upheld or uncontested disciplinary

If an employee is removed from consideration pursuant to this subsection, the appointing authority must notify the employee of that fact in writing before interviewing the next candidate or making its selection. The employee has 3 working days after being notified that he has been removed from consideration pursuant to this subsection to notify the appointing authority of any discrepancy in the information in his personnel file which led to the removal of the employee from consideration. The appointing authority may not make its selection:

- (a) If the employee does not notify the appointing authority of a discrepancy, until after the end of the period pursuant to which the employee may notify the appointing authority of a discrepancy; or
- (b) If the employee notifies the appointing authority of a discrepancy, until after the appointing authority determines whether the removal of the employee from consideration pursuant to this subsection was appropriate.
- [4.] 5. An appointing authority shall refuse to consider an eligible person whose appointment to a position will violate NRS 281.210, NAC 284.375 or a policy approved by the Commission pursuant to NAC 284.375.

- [6.] 7. If an employee is unavailable for a discussion of the report on performance pursuant to subsection [5] 6 because of an extended absence, the immediate supervisor of the employee shall cause the report to be mailed to the employee. Within 10 working days after the date on which the employee receives the report:

The reviewing officer shall respond to the employee in writing within 10 working days after the supervisor receives the request for review from the employee. For the purposes of this paragraph, a report on performance or request for review is deemed to have been received on the third day after the date on which the report or request is postmarked.
