Chairman Barengo brought this meeting to order at 8:00 a.m.

Assembly Bill 471:

Frank Daykin from the Legislative Counsel Bureau, upon the Chairman's request, gave advice to the committee on this bill. Mr. Daykin stated that as far as this is concerned, the Nevada case law with which he is familiar is all based upon the existing statute. This appears to be an area where there is no constitutional question. The Legislature may, by statute, restrict the admissibility of accomplice testimony or it could similarly deviate from the common law, by making the testimony of an accomplice admissable under any circumstances, like that of any other witness. This bill more or less strikes between those two extremes. It requires some form of corroboration, but it does not require the comparitive narrowness of corroboration that the present statute requires. Mr. Daykin stated that he doesn't think he has on the staff anyone with a sufficient background in actual, practical criminal trials and perhaps the committee would want some advice from a good defense attorney to give them an analysis of what effect this would have in actual trial as distinct from the present law. Chairman Barengo asked Mr. Daykin if he could obtain for the committee the three cases that define this area. Considerable discussion followed.

Assembly Bill 459:

Mr. Bart Jacka, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, testified in support of this bill as it is legislation requested by their department. He stated that this particularly deals with weapons and their relationship to the Federal Firearms Act. He explained that in Las Vegas they have had particular problems on the local level with the inability of the U.S. attorney via the Alcohol, Tobacco Tax Unit to file on these federal firearms violations. Quite often they come up with modified shotquns and other weapons that fall within the definition of A.B. 459 and they have nowhere to go as far as prosecution is concerned. He stated that the bill in itself defines the weapons they are interested in and basically follows the lines of the present federal firearms statute. However, he asked for an addition that might have been overlooked, a copy of which is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "A". Mr. Jacka stated that he talked with Mr. Tom Beatty of the Clark County District Attorney's office and he had no objection to the bill and was in support of the new addition to exempt firearms dealers. There was some questioning and discussion following his testimony.

Mr. Bob Telour, City Marshall in Reno, Reno Municipal Court, testified on this bill in order to explain their position to the committee. He stated the way they operate in Reno is that prior to a warrant being issued, they send out a computer print-out bill. They send it to the last registered known address, registered mail. Additionally, they always call the person on the telephone prior to making the arrest advising them to come down to the Court and either post the bail or come in and discuss it with the judge. He stated that it will be costly to their city if this is implemented with regard to the registered certification. ASSEMBLY JUDICIARY COMMITTEE March 29, 1977 Page Three

Generally this bill is acceptable from the standpoint of Police Regulation and Inforcement of the provisions as set forth.

A suggested addition would be to provide for the handling and possession of the firearms defined in Section 3 by Licensed Firearms Dealers, provided such possession and handling is done for lawful purposes.
