

SENATE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RESOURCES AND FACILITIES

MAY 3, 1977

The meeting was called to order at 9:11 a.m. on Tuesday,
May 3, 1977, with Senator Jack Schofield in the Chair, in Room 323.

PRESENT: Chairman Jack Schofield
Vice-Chairman Joe Neal
Senator Richard Blakemore
Senator William Raggio
Senator Wilbur Faiss
Senator William Hernstadt

GUESTS; Assemblyman Jack Vergiels, A.B. 709
Mr. Robert Best, Nevada State School Boards Association

A.B. 709 (Exhibit "A")

Assemblyman Jack Vergiels said that because of the many "heated" issues facing the school districts, the Boards requested that they be allowed to meet four (4) times per year, with compensation.

Senator Neal questioned the differentiation in salary between the President, Clerk and Trustee members. Assemblyman Vergiels said that the Clerk and President do more work. Senator Neal felt the salaries should be even as all of the members are elected.

Senator Raggio noted that this bill will not have to be re-referred to Finance as it is only a local government impact.
Assemblyman Vergiels said that the money committees have been making all board salaries $40.00/day, across the board.

Mr. Robert Best said that the President does do a great deal of work, and in the small counties the Clerk also is required to do a lot of the secretarial duties, so he has always accepted the differentiation.
