Chairman Dini called the meeting to order at 10:04 A.M., and welcomed all of the committee members. Mr. Dini announced that Mr. Schofield was the Vice Chairman of the Committee and introduced the committee secretaries, Barbara Gomez and Lucille Hill to the Committee.

Mr. Dini stated that the Standing Rules of the Assembly Government Affairs Committee were the same as for the last session.

Mr. Mello moved for the adoption of the Standing Rules of the Government Affairs Committee as presented. The motion was seconded by Mr. Jeffrey. The Standing Rules were unanimously adopted by the Committee, and are attached to the minutes of this meeting as EXHIBIT A.

Mr. Dini stated that the bills scheduled on the agenda for hearing at this meeting would not be discussed as they may be assigned to another committee, Natural Resources, and that Mr. Jeffrey would take them to Natural Resources.

Mr. Dini asked the committee members if any bills were anticipated to be brought before the Committee. Mr. Nicholas indicated that he would have a bill dealing with the convention authority situation, but stated that he was not sure at the present time. Mr. Prengaman indicated he may have something with regard to the airport authority and Mr. May indicated that he had nothing at the moment, but was sure that as time passed, he would have something.

Mr. Dini introduced Andrew Grose and Fred Weldon of the Research Division. Mr. Grose described the services of the Research Division which were available to the Committee. He indicated that the staff had been expanded and that they now have a total of six researchers, and that they have the ability to provide more staff support.

Mr. Dini asked if the Committee had any questions or any other comments. There being none, the meeting adjourned at 10:10 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gomez
