Amendments to AB 529

Page 31, Section 21, Line 18: Clarify to read elected "or appointed" public officers or delete "elected"

Page 32, Section 21, Line 19 and Page 33, Section 23, Line 35: Define "incomplete"

Page 32, Section 23, Line 37: Specify that a candidate for public office "who would be entitled to receive compensation" must file a financial disclosure statement

Page 35, Section 25: Intent was to make enforcement, including civil penalties, identical to existing penalties and penalty system for Secretary of State's campaign contribution and expenditure reports and have all enforcement for financial disclosure statements under the Secretary of State. Also, Page 31, Section 21, Paragraph 4 provides the Commission with the ability to pursue those who failed to file a financial disclosure statement. The Secretary of State language, based on current statute, has no provisions for failure to file – only failure to timely file.
