Over 180,000 people visited this park last year. They came to the park to spend a day with family or friends in the park's beautiful surroundings of green grass, tall trees, small lakes, and historical buildings.

Old and young alike could be found enjoying walkways throughout the park. Visitors of all ages were found side-by-side fishing from the lake banks.

Picnic areas were full of laughter and the sounds of human beings at peace with the world.

This park is one of our state's greatest treasures!

The purpose of the Tule Springs Preservation Committee is to provide volunteer services, facilitate fund raising efforts and carry out historical research for Floyd R. Lamb State Park. Committee members will work toward the preservation of cultural, historical, and natural resources to enhance visitors' appreciation and enjoyment of the park.
