Suggested Friendly Amendment
Assembly Bill 162
Washoe County School District
Proposed by Dotty Merrill
Senior Director--Public Policy, Accountability & Assessment
May 21, 2003

Section 2, new subsection to be inserted where appropriate

Any Board of Trustees of the above-named school districts which has already formed a financial advisory council which includes representatives from the business community among its members shall be exempt from the requirement in Section 2 (1) to form a new Business Advisory Council. The policies or regulations already established by the Board of Trustees shall govern the terms of appointment and other regulatory provisions for that existing financial advisory council. It shall be the responsibility of this already established council to carry out the duties and reporting responsibilities set forth in Section 2 (4) above.
