AN ACT relating to education; requiring the Department of Education to prescribe a policy for public schools to provide a safe and respectful learning environment; providing that the policy must include a model program of education for the training of school employees; requiring each school district to adopt the policy of the Department and to provide the training for employees; prohibiting a school official from interfering with or preventing the disclosure of information concerning harassment or intimidation in public schools; providing that certain causes of action may not be brought against a pupil or an employee or volunteer of a school who reports an incident of harassment or intimidation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- Section 1. Chapter 388 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 6, inclusive, of this act
- Sec. 2. 1. The Department shall, in consultation with the boards of trustees of school districts, educational personnel, local associations and organizations of parents whose children are enrolled in public schools throughout this state, and individual parents and legal guardians whose children are enrolled in public schools throughout this state, prescribe by regulation a policy for all school districts and public schools to provide a safe and respectful learning environment that is free of harassment and intimidation.
 - 2. The policy must include, without limitation:

- (a) Requirements and methods for reporting violations of NRS 388.135; and
- (b) A model program of education for use by school districts to train administrators, principals, teachers and all other personnel employed by the board of trustees of a school district. The model program of education must include, without limitation:
- (1) Training in the appropriate methods to accept differing beliefs, characteristics and backgrounds so that school personnel are able to serve as positive role models to pupils;
- (2) Training in the appropriate methods to facilitate positive human relations among pupils without the use of harassment and intimidation so that pupils may realize their full academic and personal potential;
- (3) Positive methods to modify the school environment in a manner that will facilitate positive human relations among pupils; and
- (4) Methods to teach skills to pupils so that the pupils are able to replace inappropriate behavior with positive behavior.
- 3. The Department shall, in consultation with the boards of trustees of school districts, educational personnel, local associations and organizations of parents whose children are enrolled in public schools throughout this state, and individual parents and legal guardians whose children are enrolled in public schools throughout this state, review the policy and the model program on an annual basis and make such revisions to the policy and model program as it determines necessary.
 - Sec. 3. The board of trustees of each school district shall:
- 1. Adopt the policy prescribed by the Department pursuant to section 2 of this act. The board of trustees may adopt an expanded policy if the expanded policy complies with the policy prescribed by the Department.

- 2. Provide for the appropriate training of all administrators, principals, teachers and all other personnel employed by the board of trustees in accordance with the model program of education prescribed by the Department pursuant to section 2 of this act.
- 3. On or before July 1 of each year, submit a report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that includes a description of:
- (a) The progress of the schools within the school district in providing a safe and respectful learning environment in accordance with NRS 388.121 to 388.139, inclusive, and sections 2 to 6, inclusive, of this act; and
- (b) Each violation of NRS 388.135, if any, occurring in the immediately preceding school year.
 - Sec. 4. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall:
- 1. Compile the reports submitted pursuant to section 3 of this act and prepare a written report of the compilation.
- 2. On or before September I of each year, submit the written compilation to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmission to:
- (a) If the written compilation is submitted during an evennumbered year, the next regular session of the Legislature.
- (b) If the written compilation is submitted during an oddnumbered year, the Legislative Committee on Education.
- Sec. 5. 1. A school official shall not directly or indirectly use or attempt to use his official authority or influence to intimidate, threaten, coerce, command, influence or attempt to intimidate, threaten, coerce, command or influence another school official in an effort to interfere with or prevent the disclosure of information concerning a violation of NRS 388.135.
- 2. A school official shall not directly or indirectly intimidate, threaten, coerce, command, influence or attempt to intimidate, threaten, coerce, command or influence a pupil who is a victim of or a witness to a violation of NRS 388.135 in an effort to interfere with or prevent the disclosure of information concerning the violation.
 - 3. As used in this section:

or

- (a) "Official authority or influence" includes taking, directing others to take, recommending, processing or approving personnel action such as an appointment, promotion, transfer, assignment, reassignment, reinstatement, restoration, reemployment, evaluation or other disciplinary action.
 - (b) "School official" means:
 - (1) A member of the board of trustees of a school district;
 - (2) A licensed or unlicensed employee of a school district.

Sec. 6. No cause of action may be brought against a pupil or an employee or volunteer of a school who reports a violation of NRS 388.135 for any damages that result for failure to remedy the violation unless the person who made the report acted with malice, intentional misconduct, gross negligence, or intentional or knowing violation of the law.

Sec. 7. NRS 388.121 is hereby amended to read as follows:

388.121 As used in NRS 388.121 to 388.139, inclusive, and sections 2 to 6, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 388.125 and 388.129 have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 8. NRS 388.139 is hereby amended to read as follows:

388.139 Each school district shall include the text of the provisions of NRS 388.125 to 388.135, inclusive, and the policy adopted by the board of trustees of the school district pursuant to section 3 of this act under the heading "Harassment and Intimidation Is Prohibited in Public Schools," within each copy of the rules of behavior for pupils that the school district provides to pupils pursuant to NRS 392.463.

Sec. 9. NRS 392.463 is hereby amended to read as follows:

- 392.463 1. Each school district shall prescribe written rules of behavior required of and prohibited for pupils attending school within their district and shall prescribe appropriate punishments for violations of the rules. The written rules of behavior must be consistent with the policy adopted by the Department pursuant to section 2 of this act and the policy adopted by the board of trustees of the school district pursuant to section 3 of this act. If suspension or expulsion is used as a punishment for a violation of the rules, the school district shall follow the procedures in NRS 392.467.
- 2. A copy of the rules of behavior, prescribed punishments and procedures to be followed in imposing punishments must be distributed to each pupil at the beginning of the school year and to each new pupil who enters school during the year. Copies must also be made available for inspection at each school located in that district in an area on the grounds of the school which is open to the public.
- Sec. 10. 1. On or before January 1, 2004, the Department of Education shall prescribe a policy for all school districts and public schools to provide a safe and respectful learning environment pursuant to section 2 of this act.
- 2. On or before July 1, 2004, the board of trustees of each school district shall adopt the policy prescribed by the Department of Education, or an expanded policy, to provide a safe and respectful learning environment pursuant to section 3 of this act. The board of trustees of each school district shall ensure that the policy is effective commencing with the 2004-2005 school year.
