9 of service.

10 3. In addition to the fees specified in subsections 1 and 2, a 11 board of county commissioners may provide that, for each day of 12 such attendance or service, each person is entitled to be paid a per 13 diem allowance in an amount equal to the allowance for meals

33 allowance for lodging at the rate provided by law for state 34 employees, in addition to his daily compensation for attendance or 35 service, for each day on which he does not return to his home.

36 6. In civil cases, any fee, per diem allowance or other 37 compensation due each juror engaged in the trial of the cause must 38 be paid each day in advance to the clerk of the court, or the justice
39 of the peace, by the party who has demanded the jury. If the party
40 paying this money is the prevailing party, the money is recoverable 41 as costs from the losing party. If the jury from any cause is 42 discharged in a civil action without finding a verdict and the party 43 who demands the jury subsequently obtains judgment, the money so 44 paid is recoverable as costs from the losing party.

1 7. The money paid by a county clerk to jurors for their services
2 in a civil action or proceeding, which he has received from the party
3 demanding the jury, must be deducted from the total amount due
4 them for attendance as such jurors, and any balance is a charge
5 against the county.
