Let us pray. Come to our assistance, O Lord. Come with Your mercy and compassion and shower us with these gifts. As we receive these gifts from You, O Lord, help us to be aware of those who need our pardon and reconciliation. Assist us, Lord, that we might respond to this awareness by knowing that it is in pardoning that we are pardoned and in reconciling we are given peace. It is in deep faith that we say . . .

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 24—Memorializing lifelong humanitarian Thomas Eugene Swart.

WHEREAS, Tears of sadness were mingled with warm-hearted memories of, and with love and appreciation for, Thomas Eugene Swart upon his death on November 10, 2004; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Swart, a lifelong resident of Nevada, passed away in his home at the age of 92; and

WHEREAS, Tom was born in Sparks on October 29, 1912, to Elizabeth and Clarence Swart, and a neighbor from his “growing-up years” fondly recalls the neighborhood games played under the street lamps during their high school days; and

WHEREAS, Following his graduation as a “Railroader” from Sparks High School in 1930, Tom began working in the shops for the Southern Pacific Railroad and later became a salesman at Harry’s Business Machines, where he worked for 5 years selling typewriters and calculators; and

WHEREAS, Tom continued his career as a salesman by taking a job with Moore Business Forms, during the course of which he traveled his beloved state for 37 years until his retirement in 1974; and

WHEREAS, An untold number of lives were touched and enriched by Tom Swart as he became a pillar of humanitarianism in his community; and

WHEREAS, As the youngest Master, Scottish Rite, in the history of DeMolay’s Wadsworth Lodge No. 25 Free and Accepted Masons, Tom unselfishly dedicated time to help prepare young men to lead successful, happy and productive lives; and

WHEREAS, The years spent serving on the Board of the Shriners Hospital for Children that was located in San Francisco represented another aspect of Tom’s benevolent spirit toward others; and

WHEREAS, Tom further demonstrated his concern for the betterment of his fellow man through his participation in community service projects and programs with the Reno Kiwanis Club during the years he worked for Moore Business Forms; and

WHEREAS, Because of Tom’s enthusiasm about the history of the state of Nevada, and Sparks in particular, he was instrumental in the founding of the Sparks Heritage Foundation and Museum, and he spent many years volunteering there; and

WHEREAS, The installation of a proper monument at the Masonic Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Reno for former Governor Emmet Boyle, the first Nevada-born Governor, constitutes another community project for which Tom Swart’s involvement was critical; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the wonderful humanitarian efforts Tom performed for the state of Nevada, his legacy of warmth and friendliness lives through his family and the lives of those to whom he so generously gave; and

WHEREAS, Whenever the name of Tom Swart is mentioned, everyone who knew him will recall with great affection his tremendous memory and the engaging stories he loved to tell about his life; and

WHEREAS, One story that will probably be repeated often is a tale which proves that his love of life and adventure never grew old, as at the age of 80, Tom decided to ride the Giant Dipper, a monstrous, wooden rollercoaster in Santa Cruz, California, and the ride was great, but the hat was lost; and

WHEREAS, Tom was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Freda Fremd Swart of Susanville, California, and a marriage of 54 years speaks for his devotion to her and his family; and

WHEREAS, The admiration and appreciation for Thomas Swart from his community and the residents of Nevada is superseded only by the love of his family for this caring, giving, supportive husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 73rd Session of the Nevada Legislature do hereby express their admiration and appreciation for the contributions made to the community of Reno-Sparks and to the state of Nevada by Thomas Eugene Swart; and be it further

RESOLVED, That each Legislator conveys sincere condolences to the family and friends of this model of the philanthropic spirit; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Thomas Swart's daughters, Barbara Courtney of Reno, Nevada, and Diane Johnson of Ashland, Oregon.

Assemblyman Anderson moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson.

Assemblyman Anderson requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For me, it is always hard to speak of people like Tom Swart, or his brother Hank, who clearly had a huge impact upon the community in which I live. Tom was a model native Nevadan. He was born in 1912 in the city and spent all of his life there, growing up along with the city. He graduated from Sparks High School in 1930, clearly a time period in the middle of the Great Depression. Imagine him going out and moving and selling product with Harry's Business Machines. His movement about the state put him in direct contact with every business and every store. He learned the inner workings of each one of those stores and the people in the stores, because Tom Swart was a people person. Everything he did was a relationship and your word was what it was. His involvement in life was constantly filled with what was good for the community as a whole. His knowledge of the inner workings of most businesses and where they were helped make him successful. Also, his activity within the Sparks Historical Society caused him to be in the center of what was happening.

However, that really doesn't carry the essence of who Tom Swart was. It was that "I am always up for the adventure," the riding of the roller coaster, the dapper dresser who made everybody think, "Gee, why is he here?" He was there to make sure things happened. He was the kind of person we all wanted to be. As a child, I looked to Tom as the kind of person you could be in a community to be effective, to hear and listen to your neighbors, to care about people.

So, when I was at his memorial service I wanted to make sure that I could share his memory and tell his family, once again, how important he was to all of us. He has always been active. The memorial for Emmet Boyle is a great example of that. He talked to me in 1999, saying we had ignored the first native-born governor of the state of Nevada and the youngest man ever to be the governor of the state, and he felt that was wrong. He felt something had to be done and when we reapportioned in 2001, lo and behold, he became part of my reapportioned district. He made it clear that he expected to see something done. In the last session, he was here, at 90 years of age, to make sure that we asked the State Historian, Mr. James, to work and get a memorial in place. Last Memorial Day that stone was placed because Tom Swart wanted to make sure that we didn't forget about the giants who we stand on and are with. The giants, in fact, are people like Tom Swart. In honoring him today I believe we step forward to honor the kind of citizens who make our state what it is; the people with the heart and mind of Tom Swart, who brings the humor of life, the richness of life to all of us.

Resolution adopted.

Assemblyman Anderson moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 24 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

ASSEMBLYMAN OCEGUERA:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First of all, great job on all those names. Holy moly. Mr. Speaker, I don't know what to say, to tell you the truth. The place would not run without the folks who are here sitting with us on the Floor today. They all make us look so good. People do not realize that we have these incredible staffs, sitting behind us, that take care of every need. Mr. Speaker, I just think that if the members of the Assembly could stand and give all these people a great big applause, I think it would be in order.

Mr. Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

With the permission of the Body, I would like to add my thanks as well. We are the folks that get elected, we are the names in the newspaper, for better or worse, usually for worse. And we're the folks who actually sponsor the bills and that sort of thing, but none of that could happen—whether it is funding for education or correcting one of the social ills in our state, or making a new criminal law—without all of your help. You have not only our undying gratitude, but that of the entire state of Nevada and all the citizens we serve. This is the democratic laboratory that is closest to the people, as we learn from Mr. Anderson on an every-session basis. It is all of you who make this work and really do the things for the state of Nevada. You help us make this to be the greatest state in the greatest country in the world. We do appreciate everything you do.
