Amend section 1, page 2, between lines 38 and 39, by inserting:

“3. If any claim, including a counterclaim or cross-claim, is brought in a civil action which is filed in a party state and which is:

(a) Brought against a present or former officer or employee of another party state or an agency or political subdivision of that other party state; and

(b) Based on any alleged act or omission that is related to his official duties or employment and conducted under the authority of this compact,

↪ the claim is subject to the conditions and limitations on civil actions, including, without limitation, the provisions regarding sovereign immunity, established by the party state in which that officer or employee is or was an officer or employee.”.

Amend the title of the bill to read as follows:

SKO/KEL

Date: 4/12/2005

S.B. No. 136—Revises provisions of Interstate Compact for Jurisdiction on the Colorado River.

“AN ACT relating to the Interstate Compact for Jurisdiction on the Colorado River; revising the provisions of the Compact to grant certain law enforcement officers concurrent jurisdiction to arrest offenders for prohibited conduct in certain circumstances; providing that certain claims brought against officers or employees of a party state or agency or political subdivision of a party state are subject to the conditions and limitations on civil actions established by the party state of that officer or employee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.”.

If this amendment is adopted, the Legislative Counsel's Digest will be changed to read as follows:

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the Interstate Compact for Jurisdiction on the Colorado River gives courts and law enforcement officers in adjoining states that have enacted the Compact concurrent jurisdiction to arrest, prosecute and try offenders for prohibited conduct committed anywhere on the Colorado River, or any lake formed by or a part of the Colorado River, if such conduct is prohibited in both adjoining states. (NRS 171.079)

This bill gives law enforcement officers in adjoining states concurrent jurisdiction to arrest offenders for prohibited conduct committed on any land within 5 air miles of the Colorado River or any lake formed by or a part of the Colorado River. This bill also provides that any claim which is brought in one party state against a present or former officer or employee of another party state or an agency or political subdivision of that other party state and which is based on any alleged act or omission related to his official duties or employment and conducted under the authority of the Compact is subject to the conditions and limitations on civil actions established by the party state of that officer or employee.
