EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to public safety; allowing a peace officer to arrest without a warrant if there is reasonable cause to believe that a person has committed certain offenses relating to traffic laws; requiring a peace officer to arrest a person charged with certain offenses if there is cause to believe that the person poses a danger to himself or others or that the person will continue to repeat such offenses; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes a peace officer to make an arrest without a warrant for
2 certain traffic-related offenses. (NRS 484.791)

3 This bill adds failure to stop at a roadblock and aggressive driving to the list of 4 traffic-related offenses for which a peace officer may make a warrantless arrest.

5 Existing law requires a person halted by a peace officer to be taken before the
6 magistrate under certain circumstances. (NRS 484.795)

7 This bill requires a person halted by a peace officer to be taken before the 8 magistrate when the person is charged with a violation relating to vehicle licensing
9 and registration, drivers' licenses, traffic laws, motorcycles, motor vehicle
10 insurance or motor carriers and the peace officer has reasonable and probable
