EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to employment; making it an unlawful employment practice for an employer to take certain actions against an employee who reports or reasonably refuses to engage in certain conduct that is illegal or unsafe or who provides notice of certain safety or health violations; revising provisions governing periods of limitation in certain civil actions concerning unlawful employment practices; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

The Nevada Supreme Court has determined that under existing law an employer violates the public policy of this State protecting what is commonly referred to as whistleblowing if the employer terminates the employment of an at-will employee because the employee reports to the appropriate external authorities conduct by the employer that the employee reasonably and in good faith suspects may be illegal. However, the Court has also determined that this protection does not extend to a whistleblower who reports such conduct only to a supervisor or other person within the employer’s organization. (Wiltzie v. Baby Grand Corp., 105 Nev. 291, 293 (1989); Allum v. Valley Bank of America, 114 Nev. 1313, 1325 (1998)) Section 1 of this bill codifies in statute the whistle blower protections established by the Nevada Supreme Court for employees who report to appropriate external authorities, or to the employer, conduct by the employer that the employee reasonably and in good faith suspects may be illegal. Section 1 also provides that those provisions apply to conduct by the employer that the employee reasonably and in good faith suspects may be unsafe. Section 1 further provides the same protections to employees who reasonably refuse to engage in such conduct.

Existing law establishes the Division of Industrial Relations within the Department of Business and Industry and, in addition to its other duties, requires the Division to supervise and regulate all matters relating to occupational safety and

20 health. (NRS 232.510, 618.175) To carry out those duties under existing law, the 21 Administrator of the Division and his representatives are authorized to inspect 22 workplaces. (NRS 618.325) Existing law further provides that before or during 23 such an inspection, any employee is entitled to notify the Division of a safety or 24 health violation that the employee has reason to believe exists in the workplace.
25 (NRS 618.435) Section 1 extends its whistleblower protections to employees who 26 notify the Division of such violations. Section 2 of this bill makes a conforming 27 change to indicate the placement of section 1 within the Nevada Revised Statutes.

28 Under existing law, if, after a complaint alleging an unfair employment practice
29 is filed with the Nevada Equal Rights Commission, the Commission does not 30 conclude that an unfair employment practice has occurred, the person alleging such 31 a practice has occurred is authorized to bring a civil action in the district court for 32 an order granting or restoring to that person the rights to which the person is 33 entitled. (NRS 613.420) Existing law prohibits a person from bringing such a civil 34 action more than 180 days after the act constituting the unfair employment practice 35 occurred or more than 90 days after the receipt of a right-to-sue letter issued by the 36 Commission, whichever is later. Existing law further provides that the 90-day and 37 180-day periods of limitation are tolled during the pendency of the complaint
38 before the Commission. (NRS 613.430) Section 4 of this bill extends the coverage 39 of those provisions to: (1) actions in the district court for the occurrence of 40 unlawful employment practices prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act
41 of 1964; (2) issuance of right-to-sue letters by the federal Equal Employment 42 Opportunity Commission; and (3) the tolling of the 90-day and 180-day periods of 43 limitation during the pendency of a complaint before the federal Equal Employment 44 Opportunity Commission.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN
