AN ACT relating to structured settlements; requiring structured settlement purchase companies to register with the Consumer Affairs Division of the Department of Business and Industry; prohibiting certain activities by structured settlement purchase companies and their employees and representatives; setting forth procedures and requirements concerning the transfer of structured settlement payment rights; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Structured settlements are arrangements in which periodic payments are made to a person who, because of a settlement or a judgment of a court, is entitled to receive payments for damages from a tort claim or workers’ compensation claim. Such a person, known as a payee, may transfer the right to receive some or all of those periodic payments to another person, known as a structured settlement purchase company, in exchange for consideration such as a lump-sum payment. Existing law requires such transfers to be approved by a court and sets forth certain requirements relating to such transfers. (NRS 42.030) This bill replaces the existing requirements concerning such transfers with new requirements.

Sections 4-28 of this bill define necessary terms for the regulation of structured settlement purchase companies and their activities, including, without limitation, “payee,” “structured settlement purchase company” and “transfer.”

Section 29 of this bill: (1) requires structured settlement purchase companies to register with the Consumer Affairs Division of the Department of Business and Industry; and (2) sets forth requirements concerning registration, such as obtaining a surety bond, letter of credit or cash bond in the amount of $50,000. Sections 30 and 31 of this bill set forth further requirements concerning registration, section 33 of this bill sets forth further requirements concerning surety bonds obtained for registration and section 34 of this bill provides that certain persons are not required to register.

Section 35 of this bill: (1) prohibits structured settlement purchase companies and their employees and representatives from engaging in various specified actions; and (2) provides a private right of action to payees and other structured settlement purchase companies to pursue and obtain damages and other remedies from a person who engages in prohibited activities.

Section 32 of this bill requires a structured settlement purchase company to notify the Division and, if applicable, the surety which issued the applicable surety bond, if a judgment is obtained against the structured settlement purchase company.

Section 37 of this bill requires a structured settlement purchase company to provide to a payee an extensive disclosure statement before a transfer may occur.

28 Sections 36, 38 and 40 of this bill set forth requirements concerning: (1) the filings a
 29 structured settlement purchase company must make with a court before a transfer may occur;
 30 (2) the findings a court must make before a transfer may occur; and (3) procedures to be
 31 followed in obtaining court approval of a transfer, including, without limitation, notice
 32 requirements.

33 Section 39 of this bill describes the rights of various interested parties after the transfer of 34 structured settlement payment rights, section 41 of this bill sets forth various protections for 35 payees and sections 41 and 43 of this bill provide that the provisions of this bill apply only to 36 transfer agreements entered into on or after October 1, 2021.

37 Section 44 of this bill repeals the existing statute which is being replaced by the 38 provisions of this bill, and section 42 of this bill makes a conforming change to delete a
 39 reference to the repealed statute and add a new reference to the appropriate section in this bill.

28 settlement purchase company is not a party to the proceeding or an interested
29 party relative to the proposed transfer which is the subject of the pending
30 structured settlement transfer proceeding. The provisions of this paragraph do

32 pending structured settlement transfer proceeding if the payee has signed a 33 transfer agreement with the structured settlement purchase company within 60
34 days before the filing of the pending structured settlement transfer proceeding
35 and the structured settlement purchase company which filed the pending
36 structured settlement transfer proceeding violated any provision of sections 2 to

41 with another structured settlement purchase company for the purpose of inducing
42 the payee into cancelling the proposed transfer or transfer agreement with the

49 request of the payee. A dismissal of a structured settlement proceeding after a
50 structured settlement purchase company has violated the provisions of this 51 paragraph does not exempt the structured settlement purchase company from any 52 liability under this paragraph.

1 2. A payee may pursue a private action as a result of a violation of 2 subsection 1 and may recover all damages and pursue all rights and remedies to
3 which the payee may be entitled pursuant to sections 2 to 41, inclusive, of this act

24 by a district court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to sections 2 to 41,
25 inclusive, of this act constitutes a qualified order under 26 U.S.C. § 5891. If a 26 transferee to which the transfer order applies is not registered as a structured 27 settlement purchase company pursuant to sections 2 to 41, inclusive, of this act at 28 the time the transfer order is signed, the transfer order does not constitute a 29 qualified order under 26 U.S.C. § 5891.

30 Sec. 37. Not less than 3 days before the date on which a payee signs a
31 transfer agreement, the transferee shall provide to the payee a separate disclosure

40 discounted present value.

41 4. The gross advance amount.

42 104.9406 1. Subject to subsections 2 to 8, inclusive, an account debtor on 43 an account, chattel paper or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by 44 paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification,
45 authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due 46 has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of 47 the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the 48 assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

50 (a) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

51 (b) To the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a

5 been assigned to that assignee;

22 perfection or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach,
23 right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy
24 under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible or promissory note.

25 5. Subsection 4 does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or

28 6. Subject to subsections 7 and 8, a rule of law, statute, or regulation, that 29 prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or

38 perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach,
39 right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy
40 under the account or chattel paper.

41 7. Subject to subsection 8, an account debtor may not waive or vary its option
42 under paragraph (c) of subsection 2.

43 8. This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a 44 different rule for an account debtor who is a natural person and who incurred the 45 obligation primarily for personal, family or household purposes.
