

Senate Bill No. 15–Committee on Government Affairs

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to grants; revising provisions governing the powers and duties of the Administrator of the Office of Grant Procurement, Coordination and Management of the Department of Administration; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law creates the Office of Grant Procurement, Coordination and Management of the Department of Administration. (NRS 232.213) Existing law requires the Administrator of the Office to: (1) perform certain duties related to grant procurement, coordination and management, some of which the Administrator is required to perform to the greatest extent practicable; and (2) biennially submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau a report regarding activities related to grants in this State. (NRS 232.224) This bill applies the standard of “the greatest extent practicable” to the performance of all these duties of the Administrator except the submission of the biennial report.

Existing law also authorizes the Administrator to: (1) adopt regulations necessary to carry out his or her powers and duties; (2) provide certain training and technical assistance regarding grant procurement, coordination and management; and (3) provide administrative support to the Nevada Advisory Council on Federal Assistance. (NRS 232.224) This bill additionally authorizes the Administrator to develop and maintain a manual of policies and procedures relating to grant procurement, coordination and management for state agencies.
