Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

The Supreme Court and Court of Appeals staff have reviewed this legislation and cannot determine what the potential impact to the Appellate Courts might be, as it is not possible to quantify how many suits will be filed at the trial court level that would result in appeals. It should be noted that this may result in an increase in civil cases filed in trial courts across the state, which would result in some impact to them, though it is also not possible to be quantified.
