Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

The fiscal impact of this bill cannot be determined with any degree of certainty, but any potential impact will have a positive overall financial impact to the SJDC's budget. The SJDC's Specialty Courts program provides comprehensive wrap-around services for program participants. These services can often include behavioral health evaluations and treatment. The overall percentage of Specialty Court participants who are Medicaid recipients fluctuates. If some or all behavioral health services could be covered by Medicaid for those participants who are Medicaid recipients, it will result in the District Court having the ability to dedicate those funds to other needed wrap-around services.
