Explanation

(Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

This agency has reviewed this bill and determined that it does have a financial impact. The bill requires the board to develop or purchase copyrights to an existing exam for the Expanded Function Dental Assistant. Further, administration and proctoring of this exam also add additional expense to the board. This bill also requires the board to develop or identify, and subsequently track continuing education credits for this license, which represents an additional expense in man power to the board. This agency estimates the financial impact of this bill to be approximately $75,000 to the Board of Dental Examiners through fiscal year 2023 -2024 and $50,000 annually thereafter.
