EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to days of observance; establishing the second Monday in October of each year as “Indigenous Peoples Day” in the State of Nevada; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes the Governor to annually proclaim August 9 as 2 “Indigenous Peoples Day” in the State of Nevada. (NRS 236.037) This bill instead 3 establishes the second Monday in October as “Indigenous Peoples Day” and 4 authorizes the Governor to issue annually a proclamation encouraging the 5 observance of “Indigenous Peoples Day.”

1 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada recognizes and respects
2 indigenous people as traditional stewards of the lands that would 3 later become known as the United States of America, and the 4 enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous people and 5 their traditional territories since time immemorial; and

6 WHEREAS, At present there are 574 federally recognized Tribes
7 and Alaska Native Villages, who are sovereign nations with a
8 government-to-government relationship promised under treaties
9 with the United States; and

10 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada is home to 28 federally 11 recognized Tribes, bands and communities who have inhabited and 12 protected these lands since time immemorial and whose deep
13 cultural connection has shaped the character of the State of Nevada; 14 and

1 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada recognizes that over 60,000
2 members of these Tribes, from all over the United States have 3 chosen to make the State of Nevada home and these tribal members 4 contribute to the diversity of the population of this State; and

5 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada commits to policies and 6 practices that will promote the accurate representation of Indigenous 7 people in our cultural, educational and historical programs to ensure 8 children and the community at large can benefit from the ancestral 9 knowledge of Indigenous people; and

10 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada commits to policies and 11 practices that will protect the public lands and sacred sites of the 12 Indigenous people within the State of Nevada to ensure access and 13 opportunity to enjoy for future generations; and

14 WHEREAS, Acknowledgment is a simple yet powerful way of 15 showing respect and is a step toward correcting the stories and 16 practices that erase Indigenous people's history and culture; and

17 WHEREAS, The State of Nevada recognizes the value of 18 educational integrity and search for truth in telling the story of our 19 foundation, and acknowledges past injustices to all Tribal nations, 20 and as a gesture of reconciliation, desires to recognize "Indigenous 21 Peoples Day"; now, therefore,

22
23 THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN 24 SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:
25
