Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law: (1) requires a landlord to maintain a dwelling unit in a habitable condition at all times during the tenancy; and (2) provides that a dwelling unit is not habitable if it violates provisions of housing or health codes concerning the health, safety, sanitation or fitness for habitation. (NRS 118A.290)

Sections 8 and 27 of this bill provide that: (1) if a residential property is maintained in a way that violates any applicable habitability standard, housing code or building code, or any statute or ordinance relating to habitability, building safety or fire safety; and (2) as a result of the violation or violations, the condition of the residential property is of such a nature that the health and safety of residents or the public are substantially endangered, the appropriate department of the county or city, as applicable, may notify the owner and order that the owner repair or rehabilitate the property or abate the condition. Sections 8 and 27 also set forth certain requirements for the notice.

14 Sections 9 and 28 of this bill provide that if the owner of the residential 15 property fails to comply with the terms of the notice and summary order, the county 16 or city, as applicable, certain actions may be brought to have the residential 17 property declared to be a substandard property, including an action to have a 18 receiver appointed to manage the repair or rehabilitation of the substandard 19 property.

20 Sections 10 and 29 of this bill: (1) set forth certain findings and considerations 21 that must be made by the district court in order to declare a residential property to 22 be a substandard property; and (2) require an order issued by the district court 23 declaring a residential property to be a substandard property to set forth the 24 conditions that make the residential property a substandard property and the repairs, 25 rehabilitations and abatements that are necessary to correct each violation of a 26 habitability standard, housing code or building code, or any statute or ordinance 27 relating to habitability, building safety or fire safety.

28 Sections 11 and 30 of this bill provide that if the district court finds that there 29 is a condition of the substandard property which substantially endangers the health 30 and safety of the residents, the district court must: (1) order the owner of the 31 substandard property to pay all reasonable and actual costs of the board of county
32 commissioners or governing body of the city, as applicable; (2) order that the board 33 of county commissioners or governing body of the city provide each tenant with 34 notice of the judgment and court order; (3) order, uncertain circumstances, the 35 owner to provide or pay certain relocation benefits and compensation to the tenants; 36 (4) determine the date when a tenant has to relocate; and (5) make certain other 37 orders.

38 Sections 12 and 31 of this bill set forth certain duties for a receiver appointed 39 for a substandard property.

40 Sections 13 and 32 of this bill provide that a receiver appointed for a 41 substandard property is entitled to the same fees, commissions and necessary 42 expenses as a receiver in an action to foreclose a mortgage.

43 Sections 14 and 33 of this bill require a receiver appointed for a substandard 44 property to prepare and submit monthly reports to the board of county 45 commissioners or governing body of a city.

46 Sections 15 and 34 of this bill: (1) require the district court to discharge the 47 receiver for a substandard property under certain circumstances; and (2) authorize 48 the district court to retain jurisdiction over the substandard property for a period of 49 time not to exceed 18 consecutive months.

50 Sections 16 and 35 of this bill authorize the district court to require the owner 51 of a substandard property to pay all unrecovered costs associated with the 52 receivership.

53 Sections 17 and 36 of this bill provide that the remedies and penalties set forth 54 in sections 2-18 and 21-37 of this bill are cumulative, may not be abrogated and 55 are in addition to any other remedies or penalties that may exist in law or equity.

56 Sections 18 and 37 provide that nothing in sections 2-18 and 21-37 is intended 57 to deprive any owner of a residential property or substandard property any right 58 guaranteed by the United States Constitution or Nevada Constitution, including, the
