Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law sets forth certain requirements relating to a written rental 2 agreement for the use and occupancy of a dwelling unit or premises, including, 3 without limitation, that the agreement contain provisions relating to fees which are 4 required and the purposes for which they are required. (NRS 118A.200) Section 2

6 appendix that contains a clear and concise explanation of each fee that may be 7 charged during the term of the rental agreement and the purpose for which the fee
8 may be charged; (2) requires such appendix to state with specificity for each fee 9 that is variable, that the tenant pays the actual cost incurred by the tenant, and, for 10 each fee that is fixed or provided by a third-party vendor, the tenant pays the 11 current amount of the fee; and (3) makes it unlawful for a landlord or other person 12 authorized to enter into a rental agreement on his or her behalf to charge a tenant a 13 fee in an amount or for any purpose that is not set forth in such an appendix.

14 Section 2 further requires such a rental agreement to include a separate appendix 15 that contains a clear and concise explanation of the rights of the tenant pursuant to 16 federal and state laws and local ordinances.

17 Section 1 of this bill requires a landlord who collects from a prospective tenant 18 any fee to apply to rent a dwelling unit to refund the fee if the landlord: (1) rents the 19 dwelling unit to a different prospective tenant; and (2) does not conduct the activity 20 for which the fee was collected.

21 Section 1 further prohibits a landlord from collecting an application fee, a fee
22 to obtain a credit report or a fee to obtain a background check for a minor who is a 23 member of the household of the prospective tenant.

24 Section 3 of this bill provides that during the period beginning on July 1, 2025,
25 and ending on December 31, 2026, a landlord shall not renew the rental agreement 26 or enter into a new rental agreement for a dwelling unit with the existing tenant that 27 increases the rent payable by the existing tenant for the dwelling unit in an amount 28 that is more than 10 percent of the rent payable by the existing tenant pursuant to 29 the rental agreement that is in effect on June 30, 2025. Section 3 further defines 30 "tenant" to mean a person who is entitled under a rental agreement that exists on 31 June 30, 2025, between the person and the landlord to occupy a dwelling unit to the 32 exclusion of others and: (1) is 62 years of age or older; or (2) relies on payments
33 received pursuant to the federal Social Security Act.

35           (b) Maintenance and waste removal services are provided 36 without charge to the tenant.

41          6. It is unlawful for a landlord or any person authorized to 42 enter into a rental agreement on his or her behalf to use any written 43 agreement which does not conform to the provisions of this section, 44 and any provision in an agreement which contravenes the provisions 45 of this section is void.

1 7. It is unlawful for a landlord or any person authorized to
2 enter into a rental agreement on his or her behalf to charge a
3 tenant a fee in an amount or for any purpose that is not set forth 4 in the appendix to the rental agreement that is required pursuant 5 to paragraph (o) of subsection 3.

14 that is more than 10 percent of the rent payable by the existing 15 tenant pursuant to the rental agreement that is in effect on June 30, 16 2025.

17 2. As used in this section:

18 (a) "Landlord" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 118A.100.

19 (b) "Tenant" means a person who is entitled under a rental
